COMMUNITY COVENANT

*Trinity Center
Of The Episcopal Diocese of East Carolina
*For use at the Camp Trinity Reunion*

NON-NEGOTIABLE REGULATIONS You will be removed from the community and sent home for the following:

1. Use or possession of alcohol, illegal drugs, prescription drugs not prescribed to you, or tobacco products of any kind
2. Inappropriate sexual behavior
3. Possession of firearms, knives, fireworks, other explosives or any other kind of weapon
4. Bringing or keeping pets on property
5. Unauthorized use or mistreatment/destruction of the facilities/grounds or event site, housing locations, or any other area that may be part of a youth event
6. Leaving the designated areas or grounds without permission of the Camp Trinity Director or Conference Coordinator
7. Fighting or bullying

NOTE: THE CAMP DIRECTOR AT TRINITY CENTER OR CONFERENCE COORDINATOR** WILL CONTACT THE PARENTS CONCERNING VIOLATIONS OF THESE NON-NEGOTIABLE REGULATIONS.

EXPECTATIONS:

1. Treat others, as you would like to be treated, with respect for the event by displaying concern for other teenagers, adults, and the property. Your behavior reflects on you and on the group. We are accountable to each other. Behavior disruptive or harmful to the community or property will not be tolerated.
2. Participants will arrive on time and stay throughout the entire event (closing meal) and be present and on time at all planned activities (meals included). Each person is expected to abide by the curfews, quiet times and physical boundaries (inside & outside the buildings, on the grounds, and including any use of equipment).
3. Because of insurance liability, youth are not permitted to leave the event without authorized adult supervision. Any group wishing to leave should do so only with the consent of the Camp Trinity Director. **
4. Youth who drive their own vehicles are expected to park their cars in designated parking areas and lock them for the duration of the event. Visits to and from the car will only be permitted by approval of the Camp Trinity Director**.
5. Anyone not registered in the conference is not allowed on conference grounds. Visitors are not permitted.
6. Cell phones and unauthorized electronic equipment are not permitted. Camp Trinity is not responsible for any lost or misplaced technology items or equipment.
7. Parents need to complete the medical release form including the contact number. In the event of a change, it is imperative that updated numbers and other relevant information be given at the event registration table.

NOTE: THE CAMP DIRECTOR AT TRINITY CENTER OR CONFERENCE COORDINATOR** MAY CONTACT THE PARENTS CONCERNING VIOLATIONS OF THESE EXPECTATIONS.

This is an agreement I have made, and I promise to adhere to these non-negotiable regulations and expectations while I am a participant at this event. I understand that if I choose to break the non-negotiable regulations at any time during the event, my parent/legal guardian will be expected to arrange my transportation home immediately.
